5. Reports
  - a. Principal's Report
    - i. We are now a Pre-K to 6th grade school. Our enrollment last year was 288, this year it is at 378.
    - ii. Adding 6th grade means primary and intermediate needed to be separated before school and during lunches. Civic funds were used to hire another full-time monitor to help with supervision in both areas simultaneously.
    - iii. Our 6th grade teacher's last day was Friday, September 6th. Mrs. Figueroa will be teaching the class for now. The job has been advertised.
    - iv. Kindergarten enrollment grew greatly at the end of the summer resulting in the need for a third class two days before school started. Mr. Jake took the class as a long term sub. Sha Li will be taking the class permanently. She is moving to us from Ford Elementary and has been observing this week. She will officially start Monday, September 16th.
    - v. AASA points went up as our school had a lot of growth. Many exceptional education students showed growth giving us extra points. 16 of 18 English Language Learners reclassified – meaning they either exited or moved up in proficiency levels.
