5. Reports
 - a. Principal's Report
 - i. Families were challenged to get registered for next school year by Friday, January 30th. We are currently over 100 students registered. Central will look at registered numbers in February to determine funding for next school year. Budget meetings will take place mid-end of February. All students who are registered by Friday will get a ticket to the reward movie "Bugs Life" on February 18th.
 - ii. Math/Science Night is January 27th
 - iii. Book Fair is this week
 - iv. Soccer goals were installed on the intermediate playground last week. We are hoping to keep the field chalked so students can see boundaries and play soccer fairly during recess and lunch.
 - v. Kindergarten Round-up is February 11th from 9-11am. All schools will hold it at the same time and anyone can go visit any school at that time. Families will go see current kindergarten classes in action.
 - vi. Conferences are on February 19 & 20. Dismissal will be at 11:25am on those days.
 - vii. AASA testing starts right after spring break.
6. Current Balances:
 - Undesignated - $44,984.65
